Dear 10th and 11th Grade Parents & Students,

Have you ever wondered what happens to the application you submit for admission to selective colleges. Who reads it? How is it read? What are the deciding factors? The "Admission Game" exercise provides you with the answers.

What others are saying about the "Admissions Game" . . .

"Good Humor, wonderfully honest stories and specific examples made the admission process come alive! It made a very mysterious process much more personal, understandable and real."

Springfield, PA

"The best college information night ever. I was so pleased that students really participated enthusiastically in the dialogue."

Seattle, WA

"I never expected anything out of meetings like that, but this one was really good—I definitely learned some new things!"

Ann Arbor, MI
